

BaliCamp is the largest national IT Company in delivering integrated business solutions with more than 23 years experience. As part of our rapid business development with robust growth, we are recruiting highly talented IT professionals to fill the following vacancy:

JAVA PROGRAMMER TRAINEE

You will be experiencing 2 months in-class training in our training center located in Bali or Jakarta Under the guidance of our professional trainers and through a comprehensive training program, the following advantages will be in your hand:

- Gain deep understanding and practical experience on developing desktop and web applications using Java Technology, with multiple frameworks and/or libraries such as : JGoodies, Spring, Hibernate, Tapestry, Appfuse, etc.
- Understand concept of Component Based Development
- Acquire best practices on software development life cycles, including test-driven development, automated build, bug tracking mechanism, and continuous integration.

After passing our training program, you will be joining with Balicamp as a contract employee for at least 2 years, in which you will:

- Involve in the latest cutting-edge technology projects with clients from Indonesia and overseas.
- Embrace the best software development practices using ISO 9001:2000 and CMMI.
- Learn from the best Java developers and our researched product components.

Attractive remuneration package and fast track career path as Java Programmer will be available for you. We encourage fresh graduate from Computer Science / Information Technology / Electrical Engineering or equivalent to apply.

If your qualifications meet our requirement please send application letter, curriculum vitae and recent photograph (in pdf format max. 100k) with code JPT in subject to :

recruitment @sigma.co.id

Please bring your resume

to join our campus recruitment on 28 Feb 2011 start 09.00 – 15.00 (psychotest & interview)

At R. Dryarkara, Mrican Campus, Sanata Dharma University